MISS J. GIVEN'S
SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES
AT
MIDDLETON, MISSISSIPPI.

THE Subscriber has purchased the Seminary property at Middleton, with the design of having the buildings extensively repaired, and thoroughly fitted up for a first class Seminary. In the mean time, the school will be opened under her own supervision, on the first Monday in February next. A full number of well qualified teachers will be engaged for the school. The subscriber having been for many years at the head of a school at Petersburg, Virginia, will depend for patronage here, as she did there, upon the character of her school, and the thorough instruction of her pupils. The known healthfulness of Middleton and its accessibility from all points—being near to Wagon Depot, on the Mississippi Central Railroad—all combine to render it a most eligible location for a first class Seminary.

Tuition in the regular classes $15 to $20, per session of five months.
Tuition in French and Latin $10, each, per session.
Music on piano, per session, $20.
For further particulars, address
J. GIVEN, Principal,
Middleton, Miss.

How to Get Married.

When lovely women long to marry And search a victim from the house, What charm the soft language will carry? What art will make the most proper? The only art is to be sincere to men, To give her wishes sure success; To give, to give a captive lover, And bring her home to be a slave.

Ladies wishing to profit by the above hint, will call and examine my large stock of dress goods and dress trimmings, just received at my new Cash Store, and at the lowest cash prices. Call and see.

T. T. KIMBROUGH.
